Thursday 30 November - Saturday 2 December
Hong Kong

A specialist ELT workshop for agents from the Asia Pacific region and representatives from English UK member language centres.

Meet quality English language providers from across the UK

Join us at English UK's Asia Pacific fair in Hong Kong

This English UK fair is the perfect way for study abroad agents to meet in person with representatives from English UK member centres. Thirty UK institutions will be joining us in Hong Kong.

Meet a range of UK language providers, including large and small English language schools, boarding and summer schools, further education colleges and a university.

We make it easy to find the right contacts and build valuable partnerships. Agents can research the attendees and schedule meetings in advance.
