Why attend this training day?

Designated Safeguarding Leads (Level 3) need to refresh their training every two years. Developments in safeguarding continue to evolve and lead safeguarding staff need to feel confident they are keeping the safeguarding provision in their schools up to date. This training is prepared specially for Designated Lead staff in ELT organisations. Part of the session will include reviewing case studies from the ELT industry, allowing participants to learn from real events and improve their school's safeguarding as a consequence.

Safeguarding legislation and terminology differs slightly in each of the countries of the UK (England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland). Delegates are welcome from any country, and will receive specific materials, but the focus of the training will be on legislation and terminology in England

What does it cover?

- Revision and review of responsibilities of designated leads in ELT organisations.
- Update on recent legislation, particularly 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'.
- Implications for those being OFSTED and ISI inspected
- Accreditation UK criteria 'Care of Under 18s' review and challenges of implementing.
- How have DSLs raised staff awareness and actively involved staff in safeguarding?
- Review and analysis of at least two recent safeguarding case studies from the ELT industry.
- How to improve the existing safeguarding provision in your organisation.
- Safer School – the best way forward.

Learning outcomes

- Refreshed knowledge and enthusiasm to help you improve safeguarding provision in your organization
- Practical suggestions for overcoming specific challenges
- Relevant handouts in hard copy and email follow-up
- Certificate issued by EnglishUK to confirm your Advanced Safeguarding for Designated Safeguarding Lead (Level 3) has been refreshed.
