

Managing homestay accommodation with Diane Phillips

Venue: English UK, 219 St John Street, London, EC1V 4LY
Date: Friday 13 October 2017
Timings: Registration from: 10:30 | start time: 11:00 | end time (approx): 17:00
Price: Members £175, non-members £280
Format: Workshop

Why attend this training day?

This workshop aims to share good practice and give the most up-to-date information on all aspects of managing homestay accommodation.

Learning outcomes

Participants will discuss how they can:

- Find and assess accommodation
- Write guidelines for accommodation providers
- Monitor and maintain suitable accommodation
- Discard unsuitable accommodation
- Fulfill their duty of care to all students – adults and under-18s

Who is it for?

Summer centre managers, student services staff and accommodation managers.

About the trainer

Diane Phillips has worked as a teacher, teacher trainer, and manager of adult and young learner courses. She is currently a lecturer for the Open University, teaching on the MA in Education programme and is the author of a wide range of in-house and published materials. She has been a British Council inspector since 2000 and is also a tutor on the English UK Certificate in Student Services Management.

Book your place: englishuktraining.com/training-calendar