Why attend this training day?

A key part of safeguarding is safer recruitment of staff and homestay hosts who will be working with students aged under 18. The Accreditation UK inspection scheme expects ELT organizations to follow safer recruitment practices; this training clarifies those and looks at the reasons behind the need for safer recruitment. The training is specifically designed for ELT organizations and focuses on practical procedures to ensure safer recruitment, even in the busiest times of year, as well as highlighting the importance of ongoing vigilance after staff and hosts have been appointed.

What does it cover?

- Understanding the background
- Recognizing the abuser and how they operate
- Implications for safer recruitment and after appointment
- Developing a safer recruitment process, step-by-step from job description to appointment.
- Legal and compliance; Accreditation UK
- The need for ongoing vigilance; a Safer School

Learning outcomes

- Identifying key aspects of safer recruitment that help to prevent the appointment of unsuitable people
- Understanding the importance of each step in the process of safer recruitment
- Practical suggestions for overcoming typical challenges, especially when recruiting has to happen quickly
- From these points, being able to review their own organization's practices to make them safer
- Relevant handouts in hard copy and email follow-up
- Certificate issued by English UK to confirm you have been trained in Safer Recruitment in ELT

Who is it for?

Usually designated staff who have a responsibility for safeguarding (DSPs) and/or those whose primary role is recruitment of staff or homestays for under 18 students.
