Job satisfaction = good performance?

Concept of engagement: the degree to which people brought their 'full selves' and energy to the job.

Opposite of employee burnout?

What is engagement?

‘An employee’s willingness and ability to contribute to company success.’

‘The individual’s involvement and satisfaction with as well as enthusiasm for work.’

‘Pride, passion & enthusiasm for work.’

Staff surveys

Key questions:

- I am really enthusiastic about the mission of my company.
- At work, I clearly understand what is expected of me.
- In my team, I am surrounded by people who share my values.
- I have the chance to use my strengths every day at work.
- My teammates have my back.
- I know I will be recognized for excellent work.
- I have great confidence in my company's future.
- In my work, I am always challenged to grow.

Are you fully engaged?

Or merely 'coming to work'?

What actually drives engagement?

Nadia & Brett

The Power of Teams

The share of employees who are fully engaged more than doubles if they are on teams.

Not on a team

On a team

Source: ADP Research Institute, 2019

83% survey respondents said that most work is teamwork...

Is that true in our schools?

Teamwork is...

- Sharing responsibilities
- Sharing problems
- Solving problems
- Sharing ideas
- Sharing values
- Giving and receiving support

Staffroom teams
Co-teacher teams
AM or PM teacher teams
Specialist course teams
Specific level teams
Department teams
Senior teams
Newer teacher teams
Project teams
Management teams
CPD teams

The quality of these team experiences
the quality of your work experience.

The Power of Trust

As noted, the share of employees who are fully engaged more than doubles if they are on a team. It more than doubles again if they strongly trust the team leader.

Employees who are not on a team

8% are fully engaged

Employees who are on a team

17% are fully engaged

On a team, and have deep trust in their team leader

45% are fully engaged

LEARN TOGETHER

Professional development activities
emphasise collaboration and teamwork

Effective CPD

Teacher development that works:

1. is concrete and classroom-based
2. involves teachers in choices of areas to develop and activities to undertake
3. brings in expertise from outside the school
4. is sustained over time
5. helps teachers to work collaboratively with peers
6. provides opportunities for mentoring and coaching
7. is supported by school leadership

Employee Engagement

When confronted with a performance problem, ask

‘How can we address this through our teams?’

Employee Engagement

The team leader plays a key role in creating the best work experiences

Employee Engagement

Build (extreme) trust

Give frequent, light-touch attention

Build in collaborative learning
