

Improving student numbers from China, Italy and Turkey

Invitation: Wednesday 19 September

The British Council and English UK invite you to the launch of English Language Market Reports: China, Italy and Turkey.

This series provides the UK ELT sector with market intelligence on key English language student markets.

Who is this for? Owners, directors and marketing staff of UK ELT institutions.

Come along to hear summaries and main research findings from the author of each report. The presentations will be followed by a networking reception.

Wednesday 19 September

The Royal Society, 6–9 Carlton Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

16.30-17.00 Welcome and refreshments

17.00-19.00 Presentations and discussions

19.00-20.00 Networking reception

Food and drink will be served

RSVP essential by Monday 10 September 2012

to paul.beaumont@britishcouncil.org

There is no charge for attending this event, but please register early to guarantee your place as numbers are limited. Places are initially limited to one representative per institution.

To find out more about the market report series, visit the EnglishAgenda website

Location of venue on GoogleMaps